

CHAPTER 19.

An Act to amend the "Co-operative Associations Act." R.S.B.C. 1936, c. 53.

[Assented to 3rd April, 1947.]

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Co-operative Associations Act Amendment Act, 1947." Short title.
2. Section 4 of the "Co-operative Associations Act," being chapter 53 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936," is amended by striking out "commence" in the first line of subsection (2), and substituting the words "carry on." Amends s. 4.
3. Section 4 is further amended by inserting after "co-operative," in the second line of subsection (2), the words "or any abbreviation thereof." Further amends s. 4.
4. Section 11 is amended by inserting after "company," in the third line of clause (f) of subsection (1), the words "credit union." Amends s. 11.
5. Section 21 is amended by striking out "product" in the third line of the definition of "co-operative marketing contract," and substituting "thing caught." Amends s. 21.
6. Section 21 is further amended by striking out subsection (4), and substituting the following as subsections (4) and (5):—
 "(4.) Every person who, having knowledge or notice of the existence of a co-operative marketing contract between a producer and an association:—

- “(a.) Solicits, persuades, aids, or abets the producer to sell or deliver any product otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the co-operative marketing contract:
- “(b.) Receives for sale or other disposal any product of the producer delivered by the producer otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the co-operative marketing contract; or
- “(c.) Acquires any product of the producer otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the co-operative marketing contract,— shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

“(5.) Every person who uses a fishing-vessel owned or controlled by another person engaged in the fishing industry to catch, produce, or collect fish or other marine products shall not be bound by a co-operative marketing contract with respect to the sale, delivery, or other disposal of such fish or other marine products, and the preceding subsections shall not apply to the sale, delivery, or other disposal of such fish or other marine products.”

Enacts s 43A

7. Said chapter 53 is further amended by inserting therein the following as section 43A:—

“43A. Sections 134 to 145 of the ‘Companies Act’ shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to an association under this Act, but shall not apply to mortgages created by an association before the thirty-first day of May, 1947.”
