

CHAPTER 61.

An Act to amend the "Female Minimum Wage Act."R.S.B.C. 1936, c. 191; 1944, c. 31, 1946, c. 48

[Assented to 3rd April, 1947.]

II IS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Female Minimum Wage Act Short title Amendment Act, 1947."

2. Section 6 of the "Female Minimum Wage Act," being chap- Amends s. 6 ter 191 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936," is amended by striking out subsections (3) and (4).

3. Said chapter 191 is amended by inserting the following as Enacts ss. 21A and 21B
sections 21A and 21B:—

"21A. Where the Board ascertains that an employer has paid to his employees wages of less amount than the wages fixed by the Board, and where the employer thereupon proceeds to pay to his employees the difference between the amount paid and the amount so fixed, but is unable to locate any employee to whom such difference is payable, he may pay the difference payable to such employee to the Board, to be held in trust for the employee; and the Board, if it is unable to locate the employee within one month, shall remit the moneys to the Minister of Finance, who shall hold them subject to the trust specified in this section.

"21B. Where an employer makes payment to the Board pursuant to section 21A, that payment shall, to the extent of the payment, constitute a discharge to the employer as fully as if he had made payment to the employee."
