PUBLIC NOTICE (VANCOUVER CHARTER) REGULATION

Definition

- 1 In this regulation, “Act” means the Vancouver Charter.

Principles for effective public notice

- 2 (1) Before adopting, under section 3.2 of the Act, a bylaw providing for alternative means of publishing a notice, the Council must consider the following principles:
- (a) the means of publication should be reliable;
 - (b) the means of publication should be suitable for providing notices;
 - (c) the means of publication should be accessible.
- (2) Means of publication are reliable if
- (a) they provide factual information, and
 - (b) publication takes place at least once a month or, if the means of publication is a website, the website is updated at least once a month.
- (3) Means of publication are suitable for providing notices if
- (a) they allow all information in a notice to be displayed legibly,
 - (b) they allow a notice to be published by the required date, and
 - (c) they allow a person to consult a notice more than once during the period from the date of publication until the date of the matter for which notice is required.
- (4) Means of publication are accessible if
- (a) they are directed or made available to a diverse audience or readership, and
 - (b) they are easily found.
