To His Honour

The Lieutenant-Governor in Council:

The undersigned has the honour to report:-

THAT Lot 641, of Range 5, Coast District, was subdivided into town lots and plan thereof deposited in the Land Registry Office at Prince Rupert, B.C., and numbered 850.

THAT a quarter of this subdivision was selected for the Crown in accordance with the provisions of the "Land Act" and conveyance of the parcels was made and certificate of title number 740 was issued in favour of His Majesty the King on the 29th October, 1907.

THAT George T. Kane and Mary Belle McDaniel, upon petition under the "Plans Cancellation Act", have caused the said plan to be partially cancelled by order of H. F. McLeod, Esq., Registrar of Titles at Prince Rupert, dated the 13th April, 1926, a copy of which has been submitted.

THAT upon said cancellation the parcels conveyed to the Crown, within the area affected, became entirely valueless as town lots and their retention by the Crown would interfere with the beneficial occupation of the remainder, therefore it is deemed for the public advantage that the same should be surrendered.

AND TO RECOMMEND under the authority of Sub Section 1 of Section 75 of the "Land Act", being Chapter 131 of the Revised Statutes of British Columbia of 1924, that the Minister of Lands be authorized to convey to George T. Kane and Mary Belle McDaniel Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14, Block 18, and Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17, Block 19, Subdivision of Lot 641, Range 5, Coast District, Plan 850, upon payment of the Statutory fee of $10.00 for Crown Grant, the conveyance to be made subject to the provisions of Sub Section 2 of said Section 75.

DATED THIS 21st DAY OF January 1927.
