To His Honour

The Lieutenant-Governor in Council:

The undersigned has the honour to report:

THAT on the twenty-second day of April, 1924, while passing over a small bridge on the Bella Coola highway, Mrs. John Jorgensen was thrown from her buggy, owing to alleged defect in the said bridge, and received certain personal injuries in consequence of which she has suffered physical pain and expense.

THAT the said Mrs. John Jorgensen and her husband, John Jorgensen, have made application for compensation in respect of such injuries and expense, which claim has been repudiated.

THAT the said Mrs. John Jorgensen and John Jorgensen have requested the Department to make them an ex gratia grant which the Department is prepared to consider favourably upon the said Mrs. John Jorgensen and John Jorgensen receiving the same in settlement of all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the accident aforesaid.

AND TO RECOMMEND that an ex gratia payment of the sum of $500.00 be made upon the terms aforesaid.
