SCHEDULE

GRAIN INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENT FUND REGULATION

Interpretation

1. In this regulation

"council" means the British Columbia Peace River Grain Development Council established by the minister under the Farming and Fishing Industries Development Act;

"first receiver" means any person who receives grain from, or on behalf of, a grain producer for the purpose of packing, grading, storing, shipping, selling, distributing, processing or feeding;

"grain" includes all grains, oilseeds, forage seeds and pulse crops grown by a grain producer in the Canadian Wheat Board designated area of the British Columbia Peace River region;

"grain producer" means a person who grows grain.

Levy

2. (1) Approval is given to the establishment of a levy under the Farming and Fishing Industries Development Act, payable by a grain producer.
- (2) The amount of the levy is 1/3 of 1% of the gross amount payable for the grain by the first receiver of the grain to the grain producer.
- (3) The grain producer shall pay the levy to the first receiver when the grain is delivered to the first receiver.
- (4) The first receiver shall act as the agent of the council in collecting the levy and shall
- (a) deduct the levy from the proceeds otherwise due to the grain producer for the delivered grain, and
 - (b) pay to the council the amount collected for the levy less any collection fees agreed upon between the first receiver and the council.
