To His Honour

The Lieutenant-Governor in Council:

The undersigned has the honour to report:

THAT Lots 2525 and 2615, Similkameen, formerly Osoyoos, Division of Yale District, being the "Cameronian" and "Blue Bird" Mineral Claims, have reverted to the Crown for non-payment of taxes.

THAT the boundaries of the said Lots are now practically obliterated on the ground and that, therefore, it is inconvenient and inadvisable to deal with the said Lots under the "Taxation Act".

THAT the Gold Commissioner at Greenwood, B.C. reports that no leases have issued, nor are there any applications for lease pending under the "Taxation Act" covering these Claims.

AND TO RECOMMEND that under the authority of Section 181, Chapter 75, "Taxation Act, 1922" the Surveyor General be empowered to cancel the survey, field notes and official plan of survey of the said "Cameronian" and "Blue Bird" Mineral Claims, being Lots 2525 and 2615, Similkameen, formerly Osoyoos, Division of Yale District.
