The undersigned has the honour to REPORT:

THAT Section 4 of Chapter 41, Statutes of 1922, empowers the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to relax the strictness of the provisions of the "Forest Act," relative to the making of payments in respect of Special Timber Licences.

THAT in the cases set out below, it has been established that default arose through misunderstanding, mischance or unforeseen delay, and that without such relaxation great loss, hardship or injustice could not be avoided.

THAT full payment of the amount in default in respect of these licences has been tendered.

AND TO RECOMMEND THAT the following licences be relieved from forfeiture and granted a reinstatement and renewal:
