BILL.

No. 37.]

[1923.

An Act respecting Stockyards and Live-stock Exchanges.

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Live Stock and Live-stock Products Act (British Columbia)." Short title.

2. If and in so far as any provision of "The Live Stock and Live Stock Products Act, 1917," of the Dominion, and the amendments thereof and the regulations thereunder heretofore enacted or made, is within the legislative authority of the Province and outside that of the Dominion, such provision shall have the force of law in the Province, until the same is repealed by the Parliament of the Dominion or revoked by the Governor-General in Council, as the case may be, or until the same is repealed or revoked pursuant to section 4 of this Act. Dominion enactments given force of law in British Columbia.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor may by Proclamation put into force in the Province any amendment to the said Act or regulations which may hereafter be enacted by the Parliament of the Dominion or made by the Governor-General in Council, and which is within the legislative authority of the Province and outside that of the Dominion, whereupon such amendment shall have the force of law in the Province, until the same is repealed by the Parliament of the Dominion or revoked by the Governor-General in Council, as the case may be, or until the same is repealed or revoked pursuant to section 4 of this Act. Power to proclaim amendments to Act.

4. The Legislature, by any resolution or Act in that behalf, or the Lieutenant-Governor, by Proclamation, may from time to time Repeal and revocation.

enact or direct that any provision or amendment which is given the force of law in the Province by virtue of this Act shall cease to have the force of law in the Province, and that provision or amendment shall cease to have the force of law accordingly.
