

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS developing and maintaining a highly skilled workforce is vital to British Columbia's economic prosperity, and

WHEREAS the apprenticeship system provides in-depth, quality training that ensures that apprentices are highly trained and technically skilled and ready to work in sectors of the economy where skilled trades are needed, and

WHEREAS the province wants to celebrate and recognize apprenticeships and the positive impact they have on individuals, businesses and the economy, and

WHEREAS the continued success of the apprenticeship system requires an awareness of the relevance and importance of the apprenticeship system, which can only be maintained through ongoing collaboration among employers, employees, industry, labour, training providers, the government and the public;

NOW KNOW YE THAT, We do by these presents proclaim and declare that November 4 to 10, 2018 shall be known as in the Province of British Columbia.

“Apprenticeship Recognition Week”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Janet Austin, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this twenty-second day of June, two thousand eighteen and in the sixty-seventh year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.
