

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS autism spectrum disorder is a neurodevelopmental diagnosis that occurs in approximately 1 in every 39 children and youth in British Columbia, and

WHEREAS British Columbia has a diverse community of children, youth and adults on the autism spectrum from all ethnic, social and economic backgrounds, and

WHEREAS autism spectrum disorder affects a person's social relationships, communication, interests and behaviours, and early intervention for young children on the autism spectrum may help them develop communication, social and other skills, resulting in more meaningful participation in their communities, and

WHEREAS children, youth and adults on the autism spectrum and their families can benefit from individualized community supports and inclusive, culturally safe and trauma-informed practices, and, with this assistance, an increasing number of individuals on the autism spectrum are able to live and work independently, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia wishes to raise the awareness of both professionals and the public by providing information about autism spectrum disorder and by encouraging further research into understanding effective interventions across the lifespan for people on the autism spectrum;

NOW KNOW YE THAT We do by these presents proclaim and declare that April 2022 shall be known as

“Autism Acceptance Month”

and that April 2, 2022, shall be known as

“World Autism Day”

in the Province of British Columbia.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Janet Austin, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this eleventh day of March, two thousand twenty-two and in the seventy-first year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.

Attorney General and Minister Responsible for Housing
