

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS the Canadian Cancer Society celebrates Daffodil Month to improve awareness of the impact of cancer and encourage individuals, organizations and communities to support the Canadian Cancer Society in its mission to eradicate cancer and improve the lives of people living with cancer and caregivers, and

WHEREAS the Canadian Cancer Society continues to be a charitable leader in funding cancer research, cancer prevention, advocacy and support for people living with cancer and caregivers, and

WHEREAS the Canadian Cancer Society consistently demonstrates a collaborative approach working with individuals, organizations, communities and governments to lessen the impact of cancer, and

WHEREAS the Canadian Cancer Society assists the public to take steps to reduce their cancer risk through prevention initiatives and by advocating for healthy public policy for all people;

NOW KNOW YE THAT, We do by these presents proclaim and declare that April 2018 shall be known as in the Province of British Columbia.

“Canadian Cancer Society’s Daffodil Month”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Judith Guichon, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this twenty-third day of February, two thousand eighteen and in the sixty-seventh year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.
