

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

CHARLES THE THIRD, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and His other Realms and Territories, King, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS motor vehicle collisions are one of the leading causes of unintentional injury and death across all ages in British Columbia, and

WHEREAS speeding, distracted driving and impaired driving are the leading contributing factors for motor vehicle collisions, and

WHEREAS injuries and deaths caused by motor vehicle crashes are preventable and fundamentally a public safety issue, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia has aligned the BC Road Safety Strategy with Canada's Road Safety Strategy 2025 and aims to continue reducing fatalities and serious injuries caused by motor vehicle crashes, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia's goal is to have the safest roads in North America, by working with road safety partners across the province to achieve Vision Zero: eliminating motor vehicle crash fatalities and serious injuries, and

WHEREAS the third Wednesday in November each year is the National Day of Remembrance for Road Crash Victims in Canada;

NOW KNOW YE THAT We do by these presents proclaim and declare that November 16, 2022, shall be known as in the Province of British Columbia.

“Day of Remembrance for Road Crash Victims”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Janet Austin, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this third day of November, two thousand twenty-two and in the first year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.
