

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS British Columbia is the most diverse province in Canada, home to more than 200 vibrant First Nations, Métis, Inuit and other Indigenous peoples, and residents who trace their origins to more than 200 countries or regions, and

WHEREAS the diverse cultural, ethnic, racial and religious heritage of British Columbians is a fundamental characteristic of our society and contributes greatly to life in our province, and

WHEREAS the Government of British Columbia recognizes that Indigenous people and many other cultural, ethnic, racial and religious communities in British Columbia have suffered historic injustices contrary to the principles enshrined in British Columbia's Multiculturalism Act, and

WHEREAS discrimination, unconscious bias, racism and hate continue to be challenges in our society that the Government of British Columbia is committed to addressing to ensure that all British Columbians can fully and freely participate in social, economic, cultural and political life, and

WHEREAS the Government of British Columbia is committed to fostering a harmonious society based on intercultural understanding, where diversity is respected and valued, and

WHEREAS the Government of British Columbia wishes to join with communities across the province in celebrating multiculturalism in British Columbia;

NOW KNOW YE THAT We do by those present proclaim and declare that November 17 to 23, 2019, shall be known as

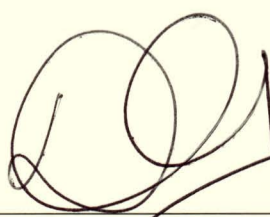

“Multiculturalism Week”

in the Province of British Columbia.

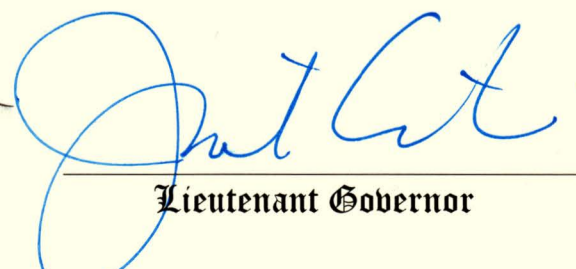

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Janet Austin, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this twenty-eighth day of October, two thousand nineteen and in the sixty-eighth year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.
