

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia is committed to true and lasting reconciliation with Indigenous peoples in British Columbia and to the prevention of racism, violence and bullying, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia strives to educate British Columbians on the ongoing legacy of the residential school system, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia acknowledges the intergenerational trauma and loss of life caused by the residential school system, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia recognizes the need to increase understanding for those survivors and intergenerational survivors who have been, and continue to be, impacted by the residential school system, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia affirms that “Every Child Matters”, and Orange Shirt Day symbolizes support for the safety and self-esteem of Indigenous children, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia encourages British Columbians to wear an orange shirt to honour all who have been impacted by the residential school system and to continue to work together towards reconciliation;

NOW KNOW YE THAT We do by these presents proclaim and declare that September 30, 2020, shall be known as in the Province of British Columbia.

“Orange Shirt Day”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Janet Austin, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this twenty-fourth day of July, two thousand twenty and in the sixty-ninth year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.
