

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS Punjabi has been spoken in the province of British Columbia for over 120 years, and

WHEREAS people of Punjabi descent have played a historic and important role in the social and economic development of British Columbia, and continue to make significant contributions to Canadian society through their hard work and generosity, and

WHEREAS modern Punjabi literature is transnational in scope and at the same time embedded in the rich cultural and literary traditions of the Punjab, and

WHEREAS the Dhahan Prize for Punjabi Literature promotes the preservation of this distinct culture and heritage through cultivation and recognition of literary works from authors around the world, and

WHEREAS the Dhanan Prize for Punjabi Literature aims to share Punjabi literature with non-Punjabi speakers in Canada through the promotion of translation, connection and engaging communication through storytelling;

NOW KNOW YE THAT We do by these presents proclaim and declare that October 28 to November 3, 2019, shall be known as

“Punjabi Literature Week” in the Province of British Columbia.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Janet Austin, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this ninth day of October, two thousand nineteen and in the sixty-eighth year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.

Attorney General
