

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS registered veterinary technologists (RVTs) are highly skilled members of the veterinary health care team, work in veterinary medicine throughout British Columbia, and are valued in the effort to provide quality animal health care to ensure the humane treatment of all animals and to protect public safety and interest, and

WHEREAS over 900 formally educated RVTs work in British Columbia in general practice, specialty practice, large-animal medicine, shelter medicine, education, industry and sales, and

WHEREAS it is important that RVTs maintain their professional registration by completing lifelong continuing education and upholding ethical standards, and

WHEREAS British Columbia's RVTs will join their colleagues across Canada to promote awareness of the important contributions of RVTs to the health and well-being of all animals, to public safety and to biosecurity;

NOW KNOW YE THAT We do by these presents proclaim and declare that October 2021 shall be known as in the Province of British Columbia.

“Registered Veterinary Technologist Month”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Janet Austin, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this sixteenth day of September, two thousand twenty-one and in the seventieth year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.

Attorney General and Minister Responsible for Housing
