

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS British Columbia is a culturally diverse province comprised of many people and communities, and

WHEREAS Sikhs have been an influential and impactful part of British Columbia since the turn of the nineteenth century. They have endured many hardships while contributing to the growth and success of our province, and

WHEREAS in April, Sikhs around the world celebrate Vaisakhi, the day the Khalsa was created, which cemented the disciplines and traditions of the Sikh faith. British Columbia is home to the largest Vaisakhi celebration in North America, and one of the largest outside India, and

WHEREAS by proclaiming the month of April as Sikh Heritage Month, the Province of British Columbia recognizes the important contributions that Sikh Canadians have made, and continue to make to British Columbia's social, economic, political and cultural fabric. Sikh Heritage Month is an opportunity to celebrate the aspirations of all Sikh Canadians and develop a greater appreciation and educate future generations about a rich, unique and diverse heritage;

NOW KNOW YE THAT, We do by these presents proclaim and declare that April 2018 shall be known as in the Province of British Columbia.

“Sikh Heritage Month”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Judith Guichon, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this twenty-second day of March, two thousand eighteen and in the sixty-seventh year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.
